including slides and/or presentations, process and store the recording, distribute it in different formats and make it public in different distribution channels under www.ethz.ch using a creative commons licence "by-nc-nd" with the following characteristics:

- by: the content must be attributed to me.
- non-commercial: commercial use of the content is not allowed.
- no derivative works: The material is to be allocated in its original form and may not be edited (no excerpts or manipulations except for editing by ITS Infrastructure).

I acknowledge the licence details published at <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/2.5/ch/deed.de> and <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/2.5/ch/legalcode.de>. This is without prejudice to the right to publish it in other tangible form, e.g. in a book.

I am aware that the published material can be researched by third parties and may be indexed by external databases or search engines. ITS Infrastructure ensures that the license conditions are included in the publication of the recording. ITS Infrastructure is liable for the trusty and careful execution of the assignment, but not beyond that.

I am responsible for the content of the lecture. I certify that I am entitled to use all documents, texts and images. Where this is not the case, I certify that I use third party materials in accordance with quotation right and reference the sources with due diligence. Hence, I warrant that the documents that I present do not infringe any third party rights.

I agree that the recording of my presentation will be archived and permanently available on the internet. I can request the deletion of my video at www.video.ethz.ch by sending an e-mail to multimedia@id.ethz.ch. The removal does not encompass copies already made by third parties during the time of the publication.
